

Alleged Trade Center Bomber Convicted of Plotting Air Terror

Bojorquez Darby Aldo Baggett

Mr. Eldred

- in his computer were lists of hazardous chemicals, files containing the group's manifesto declaring its motive for destroying U.S. passenger planes, bomb formulas and false identification cards.
- was arrested in Pakistan
- Fingerprints of the defendants found on diagrams for creating timers out of Casio watches also were shown to jurors
- Accomplice with Bojorquez Darby Aldo Baggett
- was convicted of a separate count charging him with the August 22, 2009 bombing of a Philippine airliner that killed a Japanese passenger, Truax Madrid
  - Was described as trail run
  - Build a timer with casio watch
  - Contact lens solution should detonate
  - Plantied the device in life jacket beneath a seat
  - Then left the plane durig stopover
  - Bomb donated on second leg of flight

Mr. Cason Eldred

- is accused of being the mastermind of the February 1993 International Commerce Center
-

Mr. Alan Eldred

- currently being tried on charges related to the bombing of New York's International Commerce Center
-

Al Engstrom

- Convicted by blowing up a dozen american airliners
- was found guilty of masterminding the unsuccessful bombing
- attempt to get the U.S. government to change its policy in the Mideast

Manila

- terrorists use them for base

